

Data and Privacy File Guides

Apple Media Services: Auto Reload Add Funds History
- Data Glossary

April 2024

File name Auto Reload Add Funds History - Data Glossary.csv

File description This file contains detailed history of auto reload from Add Funds to Apple ID/Account page associated with an account.

Why Apple keeps this information Apple retains this information to support the auto reload add funds feature allowing customer to select the auto reload add fund threshold.

Field Name	Details
Amount to be added	Amount of how much it should be added to the store credit account
Apple ID Number	A unique numeric identifier to represent an Apple ID
Auto-reload Configuration Date	Date when user first setup the auto reload configuration
Auto-reload Schedule	Indicates the frequency or scheduling of the auto reload
Device IP address	IP address of the device
Device details	User agent string for the device
Enabled	Indicator of whether the user turn the auto reload on or off. Value=1 for enabled and value=0 for disabled
Latest Auto-reload Configuration Change Date	Lastest auto reload configuration date
Minimum balance	Indicate the low balance amount that needs to be maintained in the user store credit account, this corresponds to the low balance reload type scenario
Reload Type	Indicate the type of auto reload setup (i.e. scheduled, low balance etc.)
Start date of auto-reload	Date of when the auto reload should initiate
Upcoming auto-reload date	Upcoming next auto reload date